EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

IN THE DRAWING:

- Figure 1 has been labeled as "Prior Art".

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-4 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, to teach: a SRAM control circuit with power saving function comprising: an address register for storing a current address signal generated by address decoder and outputting a previous address signal; an address comparator for comparing the current address signal and the previous address signal; a marking logic, among others as claimed in independent claim 1, for marking a chip select signal when the current address signal is the same as the previous address signal.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- Al-Shamma et al. (6,611,473) disclose a power saving modes for memories.
